What’s New in Residential Life Next Year?
Talking Points from Housing Summit
April 16, 2015
Information Subject to Change

WHAT’S NEW FOR ON-CAMPUS HOUSING?

- Chittenden-Buckham-Wills (CBW) Residence Halls will be coming down at the end of this academic year.
- Converse Hall will remain open.
- New housing options will be available at Quarry Hill Apartments and in a wing of the Sheraton Hotel.
- A new Residential Learning Community – Wellness Environment – will be established for first-year students in Patterson Hall on the Redstone Campus.

WHO CAN LIVE WHERE?

- New first-time first-year students and all sophomores, and Global Gateway and USPP transfer students will still be required to live on campus.
- Younger transfers, those under 20-years old (prior to the first day of classes) will continue to be guaranteed on-campus housing.
- Current first-year students (those who will be sophomores next academic year and required to live on campus) will have priority during room selection.
- Juniors, seniors and transfer students (20-years or older) will have priority to live at Quarry Hill and the Sheraton and may be able to live on campus if space is available.

NEW OFF CAMPUS HOUSING OPTIONS MANAGED BY RESIDENTIAL LIFE

QUARRY HILL APARTMENTS

- Students can sign up for apartment spaces alone, as roommate pairs, or in groups of four to select an entire apartment. Apartments house four students per apartment in two shared private double bedrooms.

- Apartments have fully furnished bedrooms and minimally furnished living rooms (couches, coffee table and chairs) to allow students to customize space.

- Students will be required to sign a 9- or 12-month housing contract with Residential Life and will be charged the on-campus rate for a private double room.

- No meal plan is required, but available to those interested.

- Cable and telephone can be purchased separately.
SHERATON PRIVATE ROOMS
- Students can sign up as roommate pairs or groups of three in the larger rooms.
- The Sheraton has double rooms with their own private bathroom designed for two students, and a small number of rooms that can hold up to three students.
- Students will be required to sign a 9-month housing contract to live at the Sheraton and all spaces will be charged at the on-campus private double room rate.
- Students will be provided four options for dining:
  - Purchase one of the on-campus meal plans
  - Purchase a commuter meal plan
  - Use Cat Scratch at hotel restaurants for discounted meals and beverage
  - No meal plan, (note there are no kitchen facilities located at the Sheraton)
- Amenities at the Sheraton:
  - Weekly cleaning of bathrooms
  - Common room with laundry
  - Wired televisions/cable services in each room and Common Room
  - Access to pool and fitness center

AMENITIES AT BOTH QUARRY HILL AND THE SHERATON

Residential Life will manage both locations, and the following support services and amenities will be provided at no additional cost:
1. High speed internet service
2. Convenient shuttle service
3. Live-in site manager responsible for on-call emergency duty response
4. Utilities (heat, electric and water) and trash removal
5. Free parking is available on first-come, first-serve basis
6. On-site mail service and package delivery
7. Similar to main campus, students are permitted to decorate their rooms following the guidelines outlined in the housing contract – terms and conditions.

Visit Residential Life’s website for more information about Quarry Hill and the Sheraton.

Students who are interested in living at Quarry Hill Apartments or the Sheraton are strongly encouraged to express interest immediately by completing an on-line Housing Request.
